

Mrs Green discovered a real magic trick the other day which improves letter formation instantly through developing pencil grip! Her little girl was wrapping her hand around the whole pencil to write! But after the 'magic sock' (an old sock with two holes cut at the toes for her two fingers and thumb) she skipped two stages and is now using the tripod grip! All with the help of a little sock!

