

Key Facts

- Families are important for children growing up because they can give love, security and stability
- It is important to respond safely and appropriately to people who you do not know very well
- It is important to recognise who to trust and who not to trust
- There are emergency services in place to help us

By the end of these topics, I should:

- know ways to keep yourself and others safe
- be able to recognise risky situations
- be able to identify trusted adults around you
- understand the differences between safe and risky choices
- be able to recognise a range of warning signs
- be able to spot the dangers we may find at home
- know the importance of listening to our trusted adults
- be able to understand ways we can keep ourselves and others safe at home
- know the differences between safe and risky choices

Ask me a question!

- Should we trust everyone we know?
- Who could we talk to if we were worried about someone we had just met?
- Can you name some dangers that you may find at home?
- Who is available to help if we call 999?

I will learn the following new words/phrases:
